DATE SET FOR PANAMA PAPERS RELEASE PLUS

On 9th May 2016 at 2.00pm EDT the International Consortium of Investigative Journalists (ICIJ) will publish <https://offshoreleaks.icij.org> based on the Panama Papers. It will contain data on 200,000 plus offshore companies and funds incorporated in over 20 “tax havens” (including Nevada USA) linked to people in over 200 countries.

Interestingly and importantly the database will also include information about circa 100,000 entities that are the subject of the investigation.

However, the ICIJ said the release of information won't be a “data dump” of all the data in the Panama Papers database. The database will not include records of bank accounts and financial transactions, emails and other correspondence. Only the names and limited information is being published in the public interest ...”

Furthermore, the ICIJ, other media outlets and investigators (including the German newspaper Süddeutsche Zeitung) will continue their ongoing investigations and publish anything of genuine interest to the world at large. Besides, Barack Obama described tax avoidance as a “huge problem” and commented that “a lot of it is breaking the laws, it's that the laws are so poorly designed.”
